

Important Notice

On Thursday, 8th October 2015, D&B Singapore was made aware that some customers and contacts were receiving a misleading email “From: Dun & BradStreet” with a return email address of alert@dnb.com.

Please be aware that D&B Singapore has not issued or authorized this email. This incident is external to D&B Singapore. Our name and logo are being used illegitimately.

1. There is no security breach and none of D&B’s data has been compromised.
2. This appears to be a phishing scam. Such scams encourage an email recipient to click on a link or open a document. Taking such action can trigger blind downloading of malicious software on the user’s computer.
3. Please delete the email. If you opened the email or the attachment that was included, please work with your desktop support team to ensure that no malware was added to your computer.

We apologize for any inconvenience caused. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact our Customer Service Hotline at +65 6565 6262.

Below is an example of an erroneous email with the Dun & Bradstreet Credibility Corp logo that is being sent from return mailbox alert@dnb.com.
